

BIG CARNIVAL IN MID WINTER PLANNED HERE

Big-City Event Will Feature State Corn and Grain Show Committee Announces

OLD FASHIONED WINTER SPORTS WILL FEATURE PROGRAM HERE

Ski Tournament, Skating, Mardi Gras, Houses Made of Ice and Everything

A MID-WINTER carnival, patterned after similar events in larger cities, will be held in La Crosse during the last week in January in connection with the Wisconsin corn and grain show, according to an announcement made by the winter carnival committee, E. G. Von Wald, Eugene Manning, J. K. Verhulst, Carl Semich and D. S. Greig.

This committee held a meeting last Thursday with H. C. Evenson, chairman of the agricultural bureau, A. I. Myers, chairman of the general finance committee, and Harry Newburg, chairman of the merchants' bureau, at which tentative plans were talked over.

According to the present plans, which are of necessity incomplete, there will be a real revival of all the good old-fashioned winter sports, including a ski tournament, skating on the river at Riverside park, torchlight processions and many other features, including a Mardi Gras. Light houses made of ice will mark out the "carnival area," snow men and other delectable made of snow will line the downtown streets. It is planned to have the school children build these decorations, and to award a prize to the school making the best display in snow. Other features will be worked out from time to time. A contest will be held to decide who will be queen of the carnival, and she will be crowned at a very elaborate ceremony. The affair is not to be confined to the city of La Crosse alone, but will be so arranged as to include all of La Crosse county. The object of the carnival is to put La Crosse county on the map as an agricultural and dairy county, and to advertise the city of La Crosse as the metropolis of western Wisconsin.

The financial arrangements have been placed in the hands of the general finance committee, of which A. I. Myers is chairman.

PERSHING NAMED ON COMMITTEE TO PLAN NAPOLEON CENTENARY

PARIS, Oct. 15.—General Pershing has accepted an appointment as a member of the committee arranging for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the death of Napoleon Bonaparte, says the Journal. Marshal Foch is honorary president of the committee and Field Marshal Douglas Haig of Great Britain and Gen. Diaz of Italy will be members of the body.

RUSSIA THE ONLY LAND NOW CLOSED TO TOURIST TRAVEL

Associated Press Correspondent and Companion Only Americans in Russia for Two Years

OLD-TIME CARAVAN ROUTE ONLY WAY OPEN TO RUSSIA

Correspondent Enters by Way of China and Mongolia

LONDON.—Russia remains the one country sealed to the post-war tourist. Until an Associated Press correspondent and another American recently made the 5,000-mile journey from Vladivostok, Siberia, into Russia proper, through Moscow and Petrograd and out across the Finnish frontier no Americans had crossed Russia for more than two years.

After Admiral Kolchak's defeat last year Russia and part of Siberia again were united but the Red forces did not follow up their successes beyond Irkutsk. Scattered remnants of Kolchak's forces retreated on foot to China where they joined with the Cossacks and legionaries under Ataman Semenov and there again established an anti-bolshevik barrier.

Then Vladivostok the Siberian port, fell to local revolutionists who expressed their sympathy for the soviet regime but it was understood in Vladivostok the attempt to establish a soviet regime in Far Eastern Siberia was to be postponed until after the departure of foreign troops.

Thus Siberia remained divided, the bolshevik flag flying in the Lake Baikal and Maritime provinces, while between these districts Semenov and his Cossacks continue to hold the "black spot" of Siberia, as the bolshevik term the Cossack territory.

Thousands of refugees from bolshevism are gathered in Irkutsk. Their one desire is to get out of bolshevik territory, but the Cossacks will not allow them to pass along the railway zone, fearing bolshevik agents in their numbers. On the other side of the Cossack barrier, refugees who have gathered at Vladivostok and Harbin during the last three years try in vain to cross the Cossack belt into soviet Siberia. Difficult living conditions in Vladivostok have made them ready listeners to the stories of bolshevik agents about ideal life under soviet regime. Each group of refugees wishes to be in the other's shoes.

One way is open into Siberia. A detour of 2,000 miles, through northern China and Mongolia, across the Gobi desert brings the traveler into Siberia across the northern Mongolian frontier. Over this route thousands of Chinese laborers and small shopkeepers have returned to China since the establishment of the bolshevik regime in Siberia. Those few refugees who escape through the bolshevik cordon travel across Mongolia into China and bolshevik agents cross the 700-mile Gobi desert in their trips to and from the Vladivostok district.

It was this old-world caravan route that the Associated Press correspondent used to enter Siberia, traveling by train, automobile, horse and steamboat from Peking to Verkhne-Udinsk on the Salekha river, where travel by the Trans-Siberian railway is again possible.

Wireless dispatches from Moscow state that Ataman Semenov has ceased his anti-bolshevik activities; but, it is reported, even asked that his forces be incorporated in the bolshevik armies. Such action would mean an open way into Siberia.

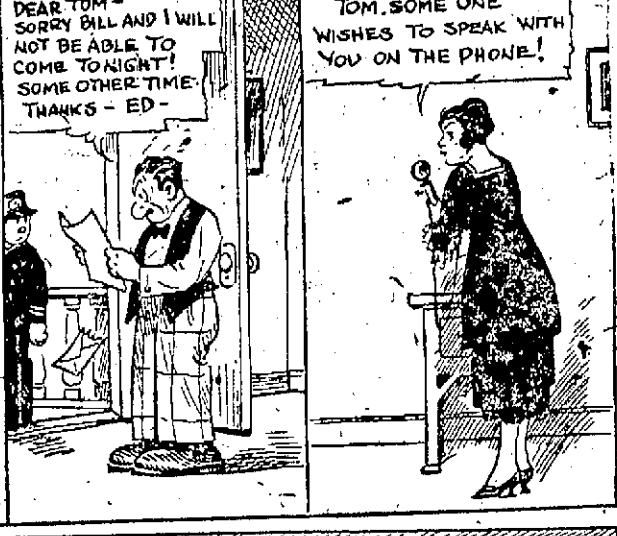

But Asia will never compete with Europe for the favor of the battle-field tourist. There can be no days tours of the battlefields in Russia. There was a science of great spaces, as well as of suns and men and strategy. In a day Russian armies can advance or retreat over more ground than some European armies covered in years of war.

Some Data About Dolls

Despite a pretty legend that dolls first appeared on the branches of trees in the Garden of Eden, the earliest really authentic records go back to the days of the Romans, who made quaint, sphinx-like, jointed dolls of ivory, which modern doll-makers have copied. The Roman children, according to Macaulay, had dolls, which they offered to Venus when they grew older. There is very good evidence, however, that the use of dolls dates from more remote times. Among the native tribes of Africa it was the custom of married women to carry a doll with them until they had a child. Even kings played with dolls, and a hundred years ago there were talking and walking dolls, which today are still regarded as novelties. At a French exhibition held in 1922 dolls that could say "papa" and "mama" were exhibited, and three years later dolls that could walk were shown in the shops. About the same time dolls were made that could open and close their eyes.

A Shifty Job

Of the nine presidents who have reigned at the White Palace, M. Poincaré is only the fifth to stay out that full term of office. Thiers, the first president, held office for only three years, as did also Marshal MacMahon, while Faure died at the end of his fourth year, and Casimir Perier resigned after twelve months. Grovy, Loubet and Fallières served the full term, and Carnot was assassinated just as his presidency was coming to an end.

The Love of Color

Vegetable dyes were used by the aborigines of all parts of America for ornamenting their utensils, staining their baskets and fabrics. Many of the textiles found in the prehistoric graves of Peru are remarkable for their beautiful and permanent colors. Few of these, unfortunately, can be traced to the plants from which they were derived. The introduction of foreign dyes has been disastrous. Their cheapness and the facility with which they can be transported has caused them to be widely adopted in places of native dyes, the preparation of which is fast becoming obsolete. The ancient Mexicans made use of a number of beautiful pigments, mostly vegetable, for the picture-writing of their celebrated codices. Nearly all of their colors can be identified.

Rats and Bubonic Plague

Bubonic plague is more common in the United States than typhus. The plague is primarily a disease of rats, caught by them from fleas, carrying the infection. Many Mediterranean ports are now reported as being infected by rats suffering from plague. These infected rodents are carried from one country to another on ships, where they get ashore and start new outbreaks. If an infected flea gets on a human being the disease is transmitted to him. In view of increased activity in trade, the health officials are much worried over the prospects of ships carrying plague-infected rats into our ports.

Oil on Troubled Waters

Poets and philosophers of all ages have sung of oil and its soothing qualities. "Why," asked Plutarch, "does pouring oil on the sea make it clear and calm? Is it for that the winds slipping the smooth oil have no force, nor cause any waves?" It is told in the Ecclesiastical history that the Bishop Adain gave holy oil to travelers, saying: "But do you remember to cast this oil I give you into the sea, and the wind shall cease immediately." Pliny the elder proclaimed that "everything is soothed by oil." Our own Ben Franklin wrote much on the phenomenon of oil on the troubled waters. It has grown to be an accepted belief in every walk of life that where there is oil to be poured forth there is peace.

French Scientists

Those who are wont to think of France as distinguished only for its gallantry and its literature should consider also its achievements in science. The early French astronomers prepared the way for the modern science of astronomy. Pasteur reduced the normal death rate of civilized

ROMANIAN GYPSIES PICTURESQUE TRIBE

High Cost of Living Brings Double Hardship to Wanderers

BUCHAREST.—Of the dozens of different peoples in Rumania, none is more picturesque than the Gypsies. Like their prototype in America, they have the country in great caravans, earning stray pennies by begging, dancing, playing and telling fortunes. In the cities they sometimes earn their "bread and onions" by shining shoes, peddling lemonade or acting as porters.

The high cost of living which has drawn tight the strings of every purse has brought double hardships to these wanderers. No matter how well they play their violins, no matter what good fortune they see in the stars for those about them, they find it hard to earn pennies from the empty pockets of the war-oppressed Rumanian people. Many of them have starved to death.

Among the Gypsy women and girls are to be found some striking types of beauty. Dark of complexion and hair, with shining, long-lashed black eyes, they are a delight to look upon. They have not yet acquired the art of using cosmetics as their sisters in the United States do.

Superstition plays a large part in the life of the Gypsy. One of the many ancient customs which still survive among the women is to beat themselves frightfully if one of their children dies. They believe that the death has been caused by an evil spirit having entered the body of the child as well as of mother and that if they "chastise themselves" the spirit will depart.

One Rumanian Gypsy woman whom an American relief worker visited was apparently about to die from pneumonia. The doctor found numerous bruises all over her chest, and these had seriously aggravated her condition. On questioning her he learned that her bruises were due to a beating she had given herself because one of her eight children had died.

The most powerful radio station in the world, built at Bordeaux by the United States has been sold to France.

A COAL STRIKE IN ENGLAND

PROSPECT OF a miners' strike in Great Britain means a good deal more to that country than the inevitable industrial stagnation and suffering which a lack of fuel is bound to impose on an industrial nation in winter. If the strike continues any length of time it will have disastrous effects on the very foundation of England's commerce and industry through the devitalization of her foreign trade, without which British power and even her bare existence would be imperiled.

Already the disorganization of coal mining in England has had serious influence upon her overseas trade. Instead of a surplus for export of six million tons a month, which was about normal for 1913 and years previous, Britain is now hard put to it to let foreign countries have one and three-quarters millions of tons a month. And coal is not to England as it is in large measure to the United States just a separate item of her export. The whole system of British commerce has been built largely on a basis of coal. It has been the "return cargo" which made it possible for thousands of British ships to bring food-stuffs and raw material to the British table and British industry. Britain has almost no raw material of her own, outside of coal and some metals. She cannot come within starvation distance of supplying her own food. Without coal with which to buy food and material abroad her industry will be perilously slowed down and her people probably faced again with the necessity of food rationing.

And a coal strike in Britain will have its reverberations all over Europe. Western Europe, with the exception of Germany and France, has been very largely dependent upon English mines for its industry and homes. French coal mines are destroyed, and last year it was British coal that barely brought France through a pinched and frozen winter, with the help of what fuel could be wrung from demoralized Germany. France has a little more coal this year, as has Germany, but neither country can come close to supplying even its own needs. France was depending on British supplies. Actual stoppage of British coal production, added to the existing scarcity, means that thousands of plants will be idle throughout Europe, millions of workers unable to earn a livelihood, millions of homes freezing. It will greatly curtail or halt the railroads of half the continent, from Italy to the Scandinavian peninsula. And in the present state of social ferment, the result of such an extra strain upon the fabric of civilization already frayed in the stress of a bitter and bloody war and an unsatisfactory peace is incalculable.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A MAN invents a machine to make cheese. He calls it the "Cheesaker". Another man steals the invention, changes the name to the "Makacheese", and proceeds to turn out cheese for the multitude. The inventor is defrauded, but the people get the cheese.

Perhaps Wilson didn't invent the league of nations, but he laid the ground for it in international sentiment, and to a great extent he shaped its form. Political opponents are planning to steal it. They will change its name, perhaps, but they will change little else. They plan to run it as their own invention. It is hard on Wilson, but the world will get the cheese.

Governor Cox shows that former President Taft advised President Wilson as to the form of the treaty. Taft doesn't deny Cox's assertion that Wilson adopted his suggestion, but merely says he has now changed his stand to conform to popular sentiment; he does not say that he has changed his mind. And so considerable importance attaches to the admission in Mr. Taft's cablegrams to President Wilson that the purpose of the alterations he proposed was not to change "the structure of the league, the plan of action, or its real character", but simply, "to remove objections which its language does not justify", and "to completely cut the ground from under the opponents of the league in the senate". Now Mr. Taft is trying to stand on this ground that he "cut from under the senate".

THE SMITH A MIGHTY MAN

IT was at the Portage fair. Pittsburgh had taken the second game from St. Louis and the crowd was shuffling in the grandstand.

There was a blare from the announcer's megaphone.

"Daredevil aeroplane stunts. Hair-raising loop the loop and spectacular volplaning!"

"Oh, h—l," shouted a spectator. "When do the horse races begin?"

And there you are. The horse has become a rarer bird than the airplane. Flyers had been buzzing over the grounds, but even the hicks from the remotest coulees showed little interest.

Yes, yes, go on with the horse statistics. The fact that he has increased, together with his cousin, the mule, from 24,000,000 in 1910 to 27,500,000 in 1920, despite a total war shipment of 2,500,000 overseas, sounds all right, but just the same its the auto salesmen whose wives have big fur coats.

But wait a minute, mister. Almost anyone would have talked just like that until the Master Horseshoers' association met in solemn conclave in Chicago early this fall. But when the village smiths talk about the college courses in their art, the study of anatomy as relating to peak loads, and the like, you are likely to have one more preconceived notion given a violent jar.

It costs seventeen cents a hundred pounds to transport goods by motor truck within a radius of six miles, and eight cents every time the motor stops. By horse it costs six and two-thirds cents a hundred pounds and when the horse stops all you have to do is holler giddap.

That's the kind of scientific talk the horse-shoers give. Fifty thousand dollars has been spent to establish a school of horseshoeing at Cornell. They admit that the spreading chestnut tree wouldn't recognize the modern smith, but they are just as insistent that still "the smith a mighty man is he."

"MASTER, HERE AM I"

SOME people interpret Harding as promising that if he is elected Uncle Sam will not enter the league of nations. Taft tells Canadian newspapermen that if Harding is elected America will enter the league. Perhaps Harding thinks that if elected he will do as he pleases, but Taft knows better. Taft has been president.

Republicans in the senate turned down Wilson, a democrat. But does anybody suppose that a republican senate will turn down Root, the artist who has just finished a redecoration of the league in the design of the G. O. P. monogram?

The top of the election booth of the Tenth ward was blown off yesterday by the high wind and the board of public works is having it replaced. At the meeting of the Nineteenth Century club Friday night J. W. Weston will talk on "Government Ownership of Telegraph and Railroads."

HOSPITAL ROOM FOURTEEN

BY WILL T. AMES

Miss McClintock, the business-like Canadian supervisor, found Nurse Padgett coming out of the diet kitchen with a breakfast tray destined for room 14. "Nurse," said the supervisor in her impersonal military manner, "you are relieved. Go to the dormitory now and at 7 report to Night Supervisor, Henry. You are to take Nurse Boudette's place in the women's free ward; she is called home by the sudden illness of her mother. I will take the tray—who is it for?"

"Room 14. Very well, supervisor," supercilious conversation between nurses and superiors was discouraged in the hospital, particularly any discussion of explicit orders. So Nurse Padgett, surrendering the napkin-covered tray, marched like a soldier down the long corridor and the long stairway, and straight to her tiny room in the detached dormitory.

Evelyn Padgett was in the last year of her training course. As she sat at her window abstractedly gazing out over the city, spread clean in the morning light on three sides of Hospital Hill, it occurred to her that her new detail carried with it something very like an honor, for Maïda Boudette was head nurse in the women's free ward, and a two year graduate—and never before since Evelyn had been in the hospital had a trainee been left in charge of any ward, even in an emergency.

"I suppose I ought to be grateful to old McClintock," soliloquized the girl. Then she proceeded to demonstrate her delight by doing something that three-year trainees are supposed to be all through with—she began to cry, quietly but earnestly.

For ten days Nurse Padgett had been taking care of Hugh Morris, otherwise and professionally designated as Room Fourteen. Hugh had brought back from France mixed up with the muscles of his neck a sliver of shrapnel.

Lately the silver had been acting queerly, and Morris's doctor had decided that it had best come out of that before it made serious trouble for the ex-soldier's vertebrae. So there had been an operation, with much subsequent fussing with bandages, etc., and with the collateral hunger for codding which every big boy marooned on a bed of convalescence experiences.

Ten days is not long in the view of a geologist or of an antiquarian society. But in the St. Michel salient, or in the life of a lad, and a lass, it can work stupendous changes. Yesterday Room Fourteen had said: "Nurse, do you know whom you remind me of? Well, it's my mother—her picture when she was a girl." And he had been very serious and earnest about it, too, though as a matter of fact Evelyn resembled that long-gone mother not at all.

Evelyn's heart had jumped right up into her throat when Room 14 said that, for the girl doesn't live who can't analyze the meaning of this particular compliment. She had laughed lightly and replied: "Does that mean you want sugar on your bread and butter? Well, you can't have it unless the doctor says so!"

And she got herself quickly out of the room with the luncheon things—but in the long, deserted corridor she hastily kissed the corner of the napkin he had wiped his lips with.

And now Room Fourteen would be going out, certainly inside a week—and what chance was there of Boudette's returning within that time? None, of course. She would not be able to see him again. The rigid hospital discipline would prevent that—and even if this were not so, how could a self-respecting girl go throwing herself in a patient's way without genuine reasons in the line of duty?

If only Maïda Boudette's mother had taken some other time to be ill!

At this thought Evelyn sat up very suddenly and very straight. Maïda had no mother! She was an orphan and herself had told Evelyn that she had not been on speaking terms with her stepmother for two years. There was something queer, then, about this sudden absence of Nurse Boudette.

Nurse Padgett's little head all at once became a perfect whirl of exciting speculations as the result of which after she had thought and thought till almost noon, Evelyn took her courage in her hand and went to see the supervisor.

At 1 o'clock Miss McClintock wired a certain Mrs. Georgina Boudette in a neighboring state: "Is your illness serious enough to require presence of daughter?" At 4 came this reply: "Have no daughter. Wouldn't let Ida B. touch me if I was dying."

At 4:30 Miss McClintock, stern and inquisitorial, sat in her office with Nurse Halliburton, the prettiest girl of the training personnel and the most troublesome that had ever managed to remain for a third year in that institution. They had been closeted for fifteen minutes and now Miss McClintock was summing up like a judge. She said: "So you admit, nurse, that you knew the patient in room 14 by sight, and—with your usual susceptibility—were, as you said, 'crazy' about him; that on three different occasions you slighted your own work and tried to induce Nurse Padgett to let you substitute temporarily for her so that you might become acquainted with this patient; that Padgett refused with this patient; that on your mutual half day out you and Nurse Boudette discussed Nurse Padgett and your interest in room 14; that Nurse Boudette declared she did not like Nurse Padgett because she was too fussy and strait-laced; and would like to help you get her out of room 14's service and get you in; that Nurse Boudette finally announced that she had long been determined on an extra vacation and that she might as well go now, as later, inasmuch as there was a shortage of graduate nurses and Nurse Padgett would be sure to be assigned to her place in the women's free ward and the regular routine of assignments would give you room 14 and the rest of Padgett's patients. Have I stated the case correctly?"

Tearfully a very penitent trainee admitted the truth of the indictment. "Very well. Go to the dormitory, I

SIXTH GRADE JUBILANT; AVALANCHE OF COUPONS FOR POPULAR FAVORITE
(Fourth day of story, "That Trip to France")

It was now an open fight. The sixth graders had been suspicious before, they now became positive. The seventh graders no longer tried to hide the name of their favorite.

It had settled down now to a duel between Miss Norman and Miss Bauer, Miss Norman being a favorite with one side because she was so tremendously popular and Miss Bauer being the favorite of the opposition because she was even more unpopular. Miss Norman and Miss Bauer joked with each other about it, but to the boys and girls it was serious. It meant work. Each evening the Norman-ites and the Bauer-ites, like ice-men and milk-men, went along the streets from house to house. They were after votes, and they went everywhere for them.

Saturday night the results appeared. Miss Norman had gained, but Miss Bauer was still ahead. The count stood 4,814 to 4,752.

Another week passed by. The supporters of Miss Bauer appeared to lose interest. "Oh, well, Miss Norman really ought to have it, anyway," admitted Jean one evening. Saturday came and the totals for the week appeared.

Dot rushed into the kitchen waving the paper. Miss Norman was 3,200 votes ahead. During the whole week only 19 coupons had been sent in for Miss Bauer. It was over.

The next week was the same, and the next. Miss Norman was so far ahead that it seemed unnecessary to vote for her any more.

Finally the beginning of the last week of the contest arrived. Things seemed quiet, but there was a lot of buzzing in the classroom of the seventh grade in the mornings.

will submit your case to the superintendent. Ask Nurse Padgett to come to me, please."

Nurse McClintock was military and business like and could be cold and stern, but she had a magnificent sense of justice. To Evelyn she said: "Your surmise was correct, nurse. Conspiracies among the personnel cannot be permitted to regulate the course of events in this institution. For that reason you will resume your former detail at once. Other arrangements will be made for the Women's Free."

Nurse Boudette's week off was illimitably extended, so far as that hospital was concerned. Nurse Halliburton's half days off were spent with in the institution's limits for the rest of her training service—and she regarded herself as a lucky girl.

And as for Nurse Padgett and Room Fourteen—why, what in the perfectly natural, uninterfered-with order of events would occur to a man who solemnly compared a little, rather snub-nosed brunette to a stately, aquiline blonde mother, finding them alike—and a girl who secretly kissed the napkin his lips had touched? If there is any scintilla of doubt, be it known that the wedding announcements bore the date of the day following that year's nurses' graduation.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Calabar Deafness, go to your drug-gist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing becoming easy and the mucus snuff dropping into the throat. It is easy and a little costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing, or has head noises, should give this prescription a trial.

Simple Signals Best

"The simplest set of football signals is the best," says T. E. Jones, Director of Athletics in The University of Wisconsin.

A simple kind, not easy to detect, is to give each play a number and let the sum of the first two digits be the number of the play. Thus, if it be play 14, it may be called by 66-41-34-78, by 9-4-7-3-2-9, or by 77-61-34-32.

Of course all the other numbers given are merely blinds to cover up the ones really important.

NEW SENSATIONS ARE PROMISED IN BASEBALL INQUIRY

Startling New Developments Expected Within the Week Says Ban Johnson

WON'T DISCUSS PLANS FOR NEW BASEBALL TRIBUNAL

"Find Out Who's Who First," Says A. L. Official

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 15.—Startling developments in connection with the reconvened special grand jury's investigation of baseball gambling next week were indicated today by President Ban Johnson of the American league, in discussing his reasons for sending a telegram to President Heydler of the National league, opposing as premature the conference of the club owners here Monday to frame new governing tribunal for baseball.

"I do not care to attend any conference to discuss a new baseball tribunal until the report of the special grand jury, which reconvened on Tuesday, is made, and I know whom it indicates," he said. "This grand jury has accomplished already what no other agency has been able to do. Its work is not finished. It is my information that clues are in hand which may lead to the disclosure of more facts than have yet been dreamed of. I believe that all attempts to reform baseball by new tribunals should be deferred until we know 'Who's who' in baseball."

"No other investigating body, incapable of summoning witnesses and examining them under oath, could have turned up the crookedness that has already been uncovered by the grand jury in the short space of time in which it was done. I believe the developments of the coming week will be even more surprising to the public."

"Judge McDonald is honest in his determination to expose all dishonesty in baseball and I am willing to give him all the aid in my power. I think all the friends of baseball ought to stand by him and await the decision of this grand jury before taking any further action."

"I believe in making a thorough house-cleaning before starting to remodel the house."

United States rifle men in the Olympic games in Belgium scored 43 points. The rifle shots representing 14 other nations scored only 47 points.

This, we believe, proves the superiority of American marksmen and American arms beyond a shadow of doubt.

American riflemen won every event but one in that one they tied for first place. Not only that but they won two second places and three third places and in one event they won first, second and third—this against the pick of the riflemen of the world.

Europe learned a lot about shooting from America in the war. Europe has learned much about American marksmanship since the war. American hasn't been regarded very highly by foreign nations of late years. It is the opinion that American who could shoot straight were the exception instead of the rule. We are now demonstrating to our forrein relations that this opinion is wrong.

There was a time when the United States was regarded as a "nation of shooters." We want that reference applied again.

The transshooters representing Uncle Sam showed representatives of Europe in the Olympic games how scatterguns should be used when they won the first five places in the transshooting championship and every man on the American team was higher than the highest shooter on any other team in the team competition.

And then the rifle shooters came along and did the rest. Commander Osburn won the individual championship at 300 metres and Lieut. Spooner won the championship at 600 metres. Serg. Fisher of the Marines won the individual championship with all kinds of firearms. The free for all style of shooting, and the team matches at 300 and 600 metres were all won by the United States teams. The small bore championship was also won by the United States and N. A. Neusslein, a civilian, of Washington, D. C., won the small bore individual championship—a game in which America is just taking root.

All they have to do is to let us in for a minute and we will do the rest.

Of the 55,000,000,000 were consumed here.

ARABIAN MOUNT LEADS FIELD IN ENDURANCE RUN

Crabtree Makes World Record for Sixty Miles of Road Travel Under Weight

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 15.—The Arab chestnut gelding, Crabtree, was to the front today when thirteen survivors of the 300-mile endurance test started on a racing finish headed for Camp Devens, Massachusetts. The gelding was sixty miles away, but, notwithstanding 240 miles lay behind them, most of the animals were in good condition.

Honors of the start were with Crabtree, who yesterday established a world record for sixty miles of road travel under weight when, carrying rider and packs weighing 245 pounds, he traveled from White River Junction, Vermont, to a point near here in eight hours. Race officials said no such feat by a horse similarly laden was ever recovered. The average daily march of a cavalry mount in the United States service under campaign conditions is 25 miles.

Bathed and rubbed for hours by his rider, Jack Fritz, a lanky cow-puncher, who holds the broncho busting championship of Australia, and the United States, Crabtree stepped out today as briskly as if he had been through an easy jog yesterday.

Crabtree was followed closely today by the Kentucky thoroughbreds, David Craig and Moscow, and by the grader thoroughbreds, Bunkle and Mile, Denise, and the Arab Rustem Bey.

PEOPLE SLAVES TO THEIR LUXURIES IS CHARGE OF PASTOR

Declares Strength of Nation Rests on Physical and Moral Health of People

TOKYO.—Comforts and luxuries of life have multiplied so with the increase of wealth and inventions that people have become "slaves," declared the Rev. D. W. Kurtz, D. D., of Minneapolis, Minn., in an address before the World's Sunday School congress, Quoting the Scriptural saying that "where there is no vision, the people perish," the speaker said that politicians and even educators too often boasted of a nation's wealth, comforts and luxuries and were not aware that the spirit of prophecy and vision had faded.

"The strength of a nation," Dr. Kurtz declared, "does not depend upon its armies or its wealth but upon the physical, moral and spiritual health of its people. Multitudes are slaves to greed and gold or to the passions and appetites of the body. There can be no permanent civilization based on materialism. The world lacks self-control. Our first need is balance. We must put first things first and other things in their proper place. The true way of life is sovereign over nature the mastery of things and the body.

"Economic democracy is the problem of the hour. No problem is solved until it is solved right. The slavery of the ancient world became the feudal system of the middle age and the industrial system of the present. In each there was injustice and inequality. Ancient Babylon, cultured Greece and pompous Rome were built on slavery and these proud nations fell. They disobeyed the law of 'survival,' the law of human brotherhood."

"The present world crisis is due to fear and hate and selfishness, to the lack of the spirit and practice of brotherhood. Enslaved selfishness had its chance and it failed. Materialism had full sway for generations and it resulted in a world catastrophe and left us with ravages of acute national and international problems. Diplomacy has failed, science has failed, industry has failed, force and governments have failed to solve the human problem and create peace and good will among men."

"There is a best way of living; that best way is God's way. His way was revealed in Christ and Christ is the true way of life. To live right men must please themselves properly to their fellowmen, which is the spirit of brotherhood, and they must be in harmony with God, which is sonship."

Other speakers before the congress were the Rev. William C. Poole, D. D., pastor of Christ church, London, and W. H. Goodwin of Montreal, Que.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

Soils
Prof. Edw. J. Grout of the soil department of the college of agriculture will be here to complete inspecting soils and collecting soil samples for complete soils analysis next Monday, week of the eighteenth. This work was started last fall but on account of lack of help in the soils laboratory, the program could not be completely carried out at that time.

Hog Cholera
"As hog cholera is again prevalent in several parts of Wisconsin it is doubly important that hog raisers realize that the so-called medicinal hog cholera remedies have not been successful in controlling this disease," says B. A. Beach, of the veterinary staff of the University of Wisconsin.

At the Madison experiment station twenty different preparations recommended for the cure or prevention of hog cholera were tested. The results of these tests plainly indicated that these preparations will not control this malady. This fact is also borne out by the field experience of many veterinarians and hog raisers.

"Occasionally bad results follow the use of serum and virus and this is frequently taken advantage of by these patent medicine vendors in getting their preparation before the public," reports Dr. Beach.

"Wisconsin farmers and hog raisers should not lose sight of the fact that hog cholera serum is the only agent known to science that will successfully combat this dread disease. There is no biological product with which results are always good, the fact that rarely losses do occur with cholera serum and virus is to be expected."

"Salesmen for several hog cholera remedies are active in certain parts of Wisconsin at the present time. The money and effort put into these preparations if spent for serum and virus, would result in an enormous saving."

Junior Livestock Exposition
The various breeds of La Crosse county are to be well represented at the Junior Livestock Exposition at Madison October 15-25, by a carload of pigs and calves raised by boys and girls club members.

The car will be loaded at West Salem Saturday morning. Several of the dairy cattle breeders of La Crosse county are attending the national dairy show in Chicago this week.

Select Seed Corn from Healthy Stocks
The high yielding qualities of purebred Wisconsin corn can be maintained ed at their high level of productivity by careful seed selection.

A large supply of good seed should be saved this fall when we have such good season for maturing corn. Farmers should not allow themselves to be misled by this long dry fall. Next year we may get the other extreme weather, that will freeze our corn the latter part of August or early in September and make it entirely unfit for seed purposes. Some of the best corn growers last their variety of corn by the early frost of two years ago.

"The ears should be selected in the field from large healthy stalks," says E. D. Holden of the agronomy department of the University of Wisconsin. "Weak or sick stalks pass on these characters to their offspring. It is just as important that the ears come from good stalks as it is that the ears themselves are well shaped and healthy. The curing of the corn for seed is equally important. Seed ears hung up indoors and dried by artificial heat are the best guarantee of a strong germination and a vigorous stand next spring."

Improve Your Seed Potatoes
When we go out to find a sample of good show potatoes, we begin to realize that we have no good potatoes, that is potatoes that can compete with the northern grown sample. Our potatoes are not true to type, and have too much scab, etc. All these faults can be overcome by proper seed selection, seed treatment, and cultural methods.

The question of what constitutes good seed is a vital one, and possibly no two persons would fully agree in every particular upon this point. It would seem, however, that the following factors play an important role: Pure bred seed; from productive plants, not overripe, uniform in size and shape; firm and sound, with first sprouts just showing at planting time. Seed of such quality is furnished suitable cultural conditions will seldom fail to produce a remunerative crop.

The importance of securing pure bred seed potatoes of a given variety is just as important as it is with corn, grain, livestock or anything else.

To those who have not yet dug their potatoes we wish to recommend the hill selection method. The hill selection method consists in marking the most promising plants during the growing season (which can not be done now). At harvest time save only potatoes from hills which yield a large number of uniform type (proper type for the variety) size, and color. With this method of seed selection we should get much better results than by the common practice of planting anything we have left in the potato bin in the spring at planting time.

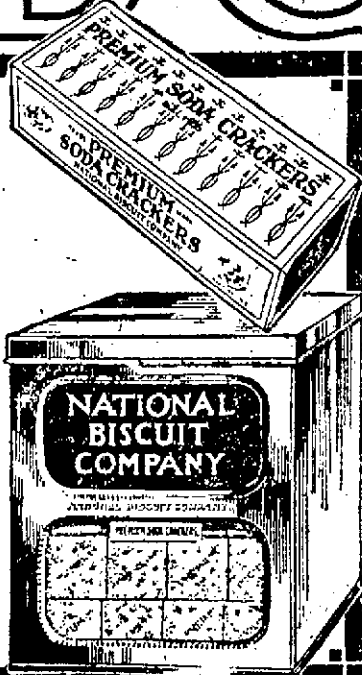

W. E. SPREITER, County Agent.

New Meaning of "Intrigue"

The latest verbal importation from France that I have had occasion to remark is no more than the conferring of a new meaning upon an old word. In English "to intrigue" has always meant to plot surreptitiously, whereas in French it was always used (by extension) to indicate the state of puzzled doubt in which we may find ourselves when we have reason to suspect a surreptitious plot and this secondary French meaning is now passing over into English so that we may read in the light stories that run through our magazines, "she intrigued me," meaning that she puzzled me, and not meaning that she involved me in an intrigue. This Gallic secondary meaning will probably force itself into our yielding Anglo-Saxon, and we shall have hereafter the privilege of employing "to intrigue" in either of two different intents. I doubt if this will be to the profit of the language; but protest is idle, since the fate of a novelty always depends upon its ultimate usefulness.—Brander Matthews in Harper's Magazine.

Beautiful Actress Attributes Her Wonderful Success to Her Famous Complexion Tells How You Also May Have One

MISS DOROTHY DALTON

New York.—When Miss Dorothy Dalton, the beautiful actress who was selected for the leading role in the mammoth "Now or Never" production, "Abdication," was questioned as to the secret of her phenomenal success, she unhesitatingly said, "My complexion."

When asked further details she explained: "Every one of my friends always raved about the texture and coloring of my skin, and I have no doubt but that my first engagement was made possible through the reputation I had acquired for a beautiful complexion. Many are like ordinary mortals, they admire a beautiful skin as much as anyone, and in selecting their wives they naturally prefer those whose complexions are attractive. I think the best asset any girl or woman can have is a beautiful skin and complexion. It is easy to have this if one will spend only a little time in taking care of the skin. A girl may have irregular features, but if she possesses a beautiful complexion she will attract attention anywhere. I am always glad to tell any girl or woman just how she may possess a skin like mine. Here is the recipe: Night and morning cleanse the skin first with warm water, then apply a good cold cream (Fiskin cold cream I have found to be the best) after massaging it into the skin take off the superfluous cream with a soft cloth. Then before going out during the day I apply Derwillo, a simple preparation which can be purchased at the toilet counter of any up-to-date drug or department store. The first application of this wonderful Derwillo will astonish you. It imparts a radiant beauty to the skin and makes a rose-white complexion—every one will talk about it. I find it excellent for my complexion as it protects my skin in all kinds of weather. That's why I prefer it to all other toilet preparations and am never without it. Now that short sleeves are in vogue there is nothing like Derwillo for this purpose. Many of my recommended friends to whom I have recommended Derwillo use it in preference to the theater, dances, parties or any other face powders or beauty preparations. Just try it once before going out. It is so simple and so effective that it instantly puts a life-like line on your cheeks which defies detection. It takes the place of face powder and stays on until you wash it off. Perspiration does not affect it nor will it rub off on clothing. It also prevents the nose and face from shining. It's wonderful for a dark, sallow, rough skin, blackheads, corns, pores, oily skin, freckles, tan and for the instant beauty it imparts. Over 500,000 girls and women are using it. It's absolutely harmless to the most sensitive skin. Just try it once and you will need no further argument to convince you that there is nothing "just as good" as "better" or "just like it." Insist on Derwillo, then you will not be disappointed.

NOTE—Druggists and department stores everywhere sell Derwillo with the guarantee that if you don't like it, you get your money back. It is the one beautifier that gives satisfaction at all seasons of the year. You can be sure it at all toilet counters in this city including Hoeschler Bros. and C. A. Begun.

ORDERS CHILDREN VACCINATED AT HAMILTON SCHOOL

Dozen Mild Cases Prompts
Health Commissioner to Take Action in School

WITH ABOUT a dozen mild cases of smallpox reported on the south side of the city, Dr. W. W. Armstrong, city health commissioner, today called upon parents of children attending the Hamilton school to have the pupils vaccinated. Those that have not been vaccinated recently must undergo the treatment or stay out of school for fifteen days, his order said.

The order follows:
On account of several cases of smallpox having developed among pupils of the Hamilton school and the fact that a pupil is known to have attended class while in a highly contagious state, it becomes my duty to advise that all persons in the school who have not been recently successfully vaccinated, avail themselves of this well known harmless preventive.

It will be necessary for the commissioner of health to require that all pupils and teachers who can not show scars of recent vaccination be vaccinated at once preferably by their family physician and present certificate to the principal of the school to that effect.

Those not availing themselves of this recognized harmless preventive will be excluded from school for a period of fifteen days from the time of the last known exposure.
(Signed) W. W. ARMSTRONG,
Commissioner of Health.

A child in the infective stages of smallpox was discovered in one of the rooms of the Hamilton school during the week and sent home, Dr. Armstrong said, but not until most of the children in the school had been exposed. No additional cases have since developed among the children, the order being merely for precaution, he said.

The smallpox now in town, the health commissioner said, is all of a mild type. There have been no serious cases.

MRS. CHARLES ALLEN BURIED AT VIROQUA; ALMA SOLVERSON DIES

VIROQUA, Wis.—The funeral of Mrs. Charles Allen was held at the Simpson home on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Harris officiated. Mrs. Allen's death occurred at her home in Waterloo, Iowa, after an illness of several months' duration. Mrs. Allen was well-known here, having been a resident of this city before the removal of the Allen family to Waterloo. She spent several weeks at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. James Simpson and Mrs. Charles Waterman in this city during the summer. She is survived by the husband and one daughter and three sisters. Other near relatives also reside here.

Miss Alma Solversson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Solversson, passed away at her home near this city on Wednesday after a week's illness with typhoid pneumonia. The young lady was a member of the Viroqua High school senior class.

Burners in the vicinity of Viroqua will have an opportunity to hear Mr. Ed Nordman of Madison, who will speak at the court house in this city at 8 p. m. on co-operative marketing. On October nineteenth at 8 p. m. there will be a cow testing association meeting at the county agents' office. Prof. J. R. Hayes, extension poultry worker of the University of Wisconsin will also be with the county agent to give poultry talks and call for demonstrations. Thirteen school houses in the county will be visited by Mr. Hayes and Mr. Graf where demonstrations will be made.

ROOSEVELT INVITES G. O. P. OPPONENT TO DEBATE ON LEAGUE

Coolidge Non-Committal as to Acceptance; Will "See What He Can Do"

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, republican vice presidential nominee, today said the challenge for a joint debate on the league of nations issued by Franklin D. Roosevelt, his democratic opponent, had not "reached him," adding that if it did he "would see what he could do about it."

He said he did not believe he would take up the advisability of such a debate in his conference today with Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee. He added that he did not favor such a method of campaigning.

Governor Coolidge, who is about to begin a southern speaking tour, said he believed the republicans have "a good" chance of carrying Maryland and Kentucky, and better than an even chance in Tennessee. He said he did not believe the republicans could carry Virginia.

Governor Coolidge said he has received letters from voters everywhere stating they were going to vote the republican ticket this year, because they wanted to "get rid of the democratic administration and wanted a change."

The governor said the only reason they had given him was their "desire for a house cleaning."

He said Boston would go republican.

LENROOT AGAINST COVENANT BUT FOR A LEAGUE OF PEACE

valuation of the independence of our country.

"It is proposed by President Wilson that a mortgage be placed upon the sons of America to the farthermost generation of time, that we shall enter into obligations, the fulfillment of which will cost millions of American lives and billions of American dollars. Gov. Cox solemnly pledges himself to the fastening of that mortgage upon the American people, and Dr. Reinsch, democratic candidate for senator, stands committed to the democratic platform upon this pledge."

"I am opposed to the league of nations as submitted to the senate by President Wilson, and I voted twice against such league."

"U. S. Must Not Pledge War
"I am in favor of a league or association of nations—I care not what it is called—in which the moral influence of the United States may be used to prevent war, but there must be no obligations, expressed or implied, for the United States to enter into war. The United States must be left free to determine its own action without any prior obligation of any kind."

"It is unthinkable to me that any good American should be unwilling to have the United States enter into an association of nations for the purpose of discussing matters affecting the peace of the world, and using its good offices for the maintenance of friendship between nations."

"I have stated on the floor of the senate upon two occasions that before I would vote to ratify the treaty and the obligations of Article X, I would resign my seat in the United States senate, and that is my position today."

"With such an issue as the league of nations, all other questions must be considered of minor importance, and all who believe that America should remain free and independent should work together for this supreme object, leaving other questions upon which they may differ to be settled in the future."

The newest dance—the "Cat"—will be the rage this winter, according to the National Dancing Masters' Association. It is also known as the "Camel Walk" and "El Gaito." It's a nice, quiet dance with no shaking or jerking.

"That's one reason it was adopted. The dancing masters say 'thumbs down' on the shimmy dances. These four illustrations show how the 'Cat' is done:

No. 1.—The dance is started with a "brush" step. The girl's left foot is pointed out forward, brushing the floor, and the man's right foot backward.

No. 2.—Then comes the "click" step—both dancers rising on their toes and clicking their heels. (Warning—Avoid all shoulder movement.)

No. 3.—The third figure is the "draw" step. The girl's left foot is stretched out to the side, toes touching the floor, and drawn back.

No. 4.—Last comes the "paddle" step. The girl's right foot and the man's left foot are raised, and the dancers pivot in a half circle.

WHEAT MAKES BIG JUMP FOLLOWING WILSON INQUIRY

President Seeks Information as to Whether Decline was Due to Artificial Cause

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Wheat made a big advance in price today after news became public that president Wilson had asked Governor Allen of Kansas for information which might indicate that the recent big fall in the value of wheat was due to any artificial cause. December delivery ran up 13 to 13 1/2 to $2.21, and closed unsettled at $2.17 1/2 to $2.18 1/2.

Announcement of recent large British purchases of wheat on the Pacific coast counted also as a bullish factor, and so, too, did word of an unusual export demand for corn during the last few days. Besides, a big drop in ocean freight rates was reported, and it was said that seedling advices pointed to a seriously decreased acreage of winter wheat planting throughout the United States.

Most of the hurried buying on which today's advance took place was attributed to shorts and commission houses.

SOCIALIST CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNMENT WILL SPEAK IN THIS CITY

William Coleman, socialist candidate for governor, will speak in La Crosse Sunday night in Eagle hall in the interests of the state ticket of his party.

Coleman, who has been on tour of the state for two weeks, has attracted considerable attention through his vitriolic attacks on the Constitutional Defense league, profiteering and league of nations.

"Coleman, who is a labor leader in Milwaukee and a member of the city common council, sprang into unique prominence last winter when he organized the striking marriage collectors of Milwaukee. He opposes prohibition and is an advocate of the early signing of a separate peace treaty with Germany."

ARGENTINE DECIDES TO KEEP ITS GOLD

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 15.—Disapproval of the exportation of gold from Argentina to the United States to regulate the exchange situation is expressed by the Bolsa de Comercio, (Board of Trade) following a report from a special investigating committee.

The committee decided Argentina should guard her gold, despite the fact that the cost of the imports from the United States had been raised 15 to 20 per cent because of the decreased value of the peso.

FATHER'S DAY AT MADISON TOMORROW; SURE, IT'S FOOTBALL

The Inquisitive Reporter was conferring with Judge Brindley about the large amount of weather La Crosse was having in the last 24 hours.

The Judge eyed the Inquisitive Reporter, gazed speculatively out the window, forgot the weather, ignored the query regarding news of the day and opined thusly:

"I am going out of town for a day or two." Silence. The Inquisitive Reporter held his breath, believing a real story or tip on a story was forthcoming. It wasn't.

"All right," the Inquisitive Reporter "allowed," after the Judge's remarks had time to soak in, "why are you leaving town?"

"You see, it is this way," continued the Judge. "I have a boy down at Madison. His fraternity is going to have a Father's day, or something down there and he wants his dad to come down and help celebrate. And—"

"Say, you know Northwestern developed the stuffing out of Minnesota on the gridiron last Saturday. That was a fine game. Well, you know that Northwestern plays Wisconsin at Madison tomorrow, don't you?"

"Sure, but what's that got to do with Father's Day?" asked the bewildered Inquisitive Reporter.

"Everything, my boy, everything," chortled the Judge.

So there you have Judge Brindley's system of "playing hooky" from court to see a football game.

Public Debate

EXERCISING THE LEAGUE
Editor, La Crosse Tribune and Leader-Press, La Crosse, Wis.
Dear Editor: Through the columns of your very interesting paper, would you please ask all the voters to commit to memory the following words:

"Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself hath said, 'This is my own my Native Land, my own U. S. A.'"

Commit above to memory voters and then the League of Nations I am sure so far as being adopted is concerned on Nov. 2 will cease to function or die aborting.

Very truly,
JAMES WILSON SHIELDS.

UP AND DOWN STATE WITH POLITICIANS

Blaine Knocks Chip from G. O. P.

Shoulder

John J. Blaine, republican gubernatorial nominee, has knocked the chip from the shoulder of the anti-La Follette anti-Nonpartisan league faction of the state G. O. P. The battle is on.

Blaine, addressing the southern Wisconsin La Follette leaders who gathered around Senator La Follette's desk Wednesday, announced that:

"I have been besieged with requests for statements, declarations and resolutions, but I do not propose to stultify myself or change my position to get the support of any organization. It matters little what the outcome of the election may be to me, personally, I will not betray the progressiveness who nominated me."

George P. Conings, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, and Judge Charles D. Rosa of Beloit, here as a representative of Rock county progressives, also spoke.

Judge Rosa asserted that the return for his county and the other Wisconsin counties in the recent primaries are not indicative of the mood of the people but serve to show the necessity of a thorough educational campaign.

"At heart the people of this great state are progressive and are for real democracy," said the former legislator, "but they have been misled and misinformed on the issues to such an extent that it is absolutely necessary that the real facts be put before them."

Ex-Madison Woman for Col. McCoy

Announcement of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Whitehead, Janesville, that they will support McCoy, democrat, for governor because Blaine carries the Nonpartisan league's endorsement is of interest to hundreds in the state because of the fact that both are influential in republican circles. Mr. Whitehead is a former senator, and his wife is a member of the republican state central committee from the first district.

What the Press Agent Says

According to Colonel McCoy's press agent, "thousands of republicans from all parts of the state will cast their ballots for McCoy for governor because John J. Blaine, the Nonpartisan league candidate, through divided opposition in the primaries, managed to capture the republican nomination." He says the Republican McCoy club movement is growing rapidly.

Bob Girbas Harding's Plan

Senator Robert M. La Follette and Senator Warren G. Harding are in agreement on one point—the pilgrimage plan of campaign.

The republican presidential nominee originated the idea of having the voters come to his front porch at Marion, Ohio.

Now "Bob" is having his followers come to his desk in the Bank of Wisconsin building here.

Wednesday's pilgrimage of southern Wisconsin La Follettees was the first. Other delegations will be received on designated days.

Host Out Against Blaine

Clem P. Host, Milwaukee, manager of the primary campaign of Colonel Gilbert Seaman, and for many years a supporter of former Governor Francis E. McGovern, has announced that he will not support Blaine for governor "because Blaine is not a republican."

Chapple to Vote for McCoy

Another primary campaign manager has come out against Blaine. He is John Chapple, Ashland, former assemblyman and editor of the Ashland Press. Chapple directed the fight of Roy Wilcox for the governorship nomination. He says he will vote for McCoy.

HONOLULU MADISON REPORTS

If Identified Sailstad Will be Extradited on Arson Charge

SUPERIOR, Wis.—Proof that E. J. Sailstad, former president of the Multitone company of Eau Claire, is alive and that with Dorothy Anderson, his former secretary and "sunshine girl," he fled from Lake Nebagamon several hours before his summer home was burned to the ground on the night of Aug. 26, is now in the hands of officials of Douglas county, according to District Attorney Archibald McKay.

The latest link in the chain of evidence was established Thursday night, when a woman who owns a hotel and rooming house in Superior, came to Assistant District Attorney Robert B. Kennedy with the information that Sailstad had spent the night of Aug. 27 at her home. While the authorities would not reveal the name of their informant, they stated that there could be no mistake in the alleged identification as the woman had been a friend of the Sailstad family for several years.

Simultaneously with the discovery of new evidence in the case, Deputy State Fire Marshal Charles Good of Ashland arrived Thursday night to investigate further the burning of the cottage and to institute prosecution should the evidence warrant.

Cabman Sticks to Story
That Sailstad is alive is now held a certainty by local officials. They point to the statement of Frank Thiery, a Duluth taxi driver, who, on Thursday, identified pictures of Sailstad and Miss Anderson as those of the couple he had driven from Lake Nebagamon to Duluth on the night of the fire. Thiery was questioned on Thursday by United States District Attorney A. C. Wolfe, who had announced that a federal charge will be prepared against Sailstad if the evidence shows a violation of the Mann act.

Following Thiery's revelations came the information of Sailstad's alleged visit to Superior following the fire at the summer cottage. It has also been reported to local officials that a couple answering the description of Sailstad and Miss Anderson left Superior by boat on the morning of Aug. 28 but authorities state that this has not been definitely proved.

Trace Burned Body
Stating that they are now convinced that Sailstad is alive, local authorities have turned their efforts to an attempt to solve the identity of the body found in the ruins of the Sailstad cottage on the morning after the fire.

The body, too badly burned to identify or to even determine its sex, was taken to Eau Claire and buried on the assumption that it was that of Sailstad. With the belief that Sailstad was alive following the fire, authorities are confronted with the question of the identification of the burned remains.

Working on the theory that the body might have been removed from a nearby cemetery, Coroner Z. A. Downs has sent out a request to the sextons of all nearby cemeteries asking that they carefully examine all of the graves and report to him.

Reported at Honolulu
MADISON, Wis.—State Insurance Commissioner Pearl Whitman, late Thursday afternoon received a telephone call from Superior to the effect that Edward J. Sailstad, prominent business man of Eau Claire, is believed to have been located in Honolulu and a fire marshal has been requested to be sent to make an investigation covering the fire at Lake Nebagamon cottage in which Sailstad was supposed to have lost his life.

If an investigation shows that Sailstad could be arrested on suspicion of having started the fire he could be extradited on a charge of arson.

Carl L. Good, Ashland, deputy fire marshal, has been ordered to proceed to Lake Nebagamon to make up investigation.

KING ALEXANDER IN SERIOUS CONDITION
ATHENS, Oct. 14.—The grave character of the malady from which King Alexander of Greece is suffering was emphasized today by Dr. Georges Vidal, the French specialist, who is attending the king in the illness caused by the monkey bite sustained two weeks ago. Dr. Vidal said the gravity of the king's disease was indicated by the persistence of the jaundice and by the fever which was continuing.

DEMONSTRATIONS FOLLOW
TRIEST GENERAL STRIKE
TRIEST, Oct. 14.—Nationalist demonstrations followed the calling of a general strike here today. A newspaper office was set on fire. Troops were called to patrol the streets.

Chopsticks Easy to Manipulate
It is easy to learn to use chopsticks. Penholders or pencils make perfect substitutes for practice. All that is necessary is to remember that the sticks are in effect extensions of the fore and second fingers, and to begin with short length reaches and as practice makes perfect extend them gradually to their full length. Baked beans are good to begin with, and from these in a very short time the novice will pass on to boiled rice and be able to roll it into a neat ball, pick it up and "swish" it in soup or sugar as one to the manner born.

The New Winter Coats

Leave nothing to be desired in points of variety and general utility

Our stock of winter coats is now complete and throughout the collection one will observe a predominance of youthful modes. Styles that incline toward sport coats and clever styles for practical wear, belted swaggar effects with convertible collar and cuffs. However, Fashion shows no favoritism this year and turns with equal favor to wraps of flowing grace. Many of the coats claim distinction through the use of generously sized pockets, while others attain an uncommon modishness through their rich silk linings. Cloth and pile fabrics in plain and fur trimmed models. The best feature of all—while the quality is far superior the prices are lower than they were a year ago. All sizes up to 56

MADISON SLATED FOR AIR SERVICE WITH LA CROSSE

Capital City Expects to be on Route Between Chicago and Twin Cities

Madison expects to have air mail service on the Chicago-La Crosse-Twin Cities route.

A plane arrived in that city yesterday and landed at the Eken brothers' farm at the end of the North street line and was welcomed by a representative of the Association of Commerce and officials.

Madison will get two airplane mail deliveries a day after establishment of the route, according to announcement made in that city. One plane will arrive in Madison at 5 a. m. and another at 4 p. m. The morning mail will come from Chicago and tributary points and the afternoon mail will be from Minneapolis and points along that line.

Installation of the plane service will materially shorten time required for forwarding of mail. A letter will reach Madison from Chicago in two hours and in four hours from Minneapolis. The route of which Madison is a part is one of several established throughout the country.

COX CAMPAIGNING AMONG HOME FOLKS

ENROUTE WITH GOVERNOR COX, Oct. 15.—"Home folks" of Ohio today again were the objects of Governor Cox's league of nations and other appeals. Leaving Columbus today for a trip through northern Ohio, including a rear platform date at Marion, the home of Senator Harding, his republican opponent, the democratic presidential candidate had another strenuous day's work laid out.

Tonight the governor was to talk at Detroit.

WONT INTERFERE WITH SOCIALIST SPEAKERS

NEW LONDON, Conn., Oct. 15.—After refusal by the police under the mayor's orders to allow speakers of the socialist labor party to address a street crowd last night, Mayor Frank Morgan changed his attitude and today indicated future meetings would not be interfered with.

The speakers made no attempt to hold the street meeting although protesting at the police order.

SHE'S A CIVIL ENGINEER

DENVER.—Leave it to a woman! That's what the United States bureau of public roads in Denver, did when an assistant bridge engineer job was open. Miss Lou Alta Melton is filling the place in fine shape. She was the only girl in the civil engineering class which graduated from the University of Colorado last June. And she is also the first and only woman member of the Colorado Society of Engineers. Miss Melton admits 25 summers.

AMERICANS LEAVE MOSCOW AFTER MANY MONTHS OF EFFORT

RIGA, Oct. 14.—Samuel Hopwood, manager of an American company, and his daughter, Miss Dora Hopwood, who had lived seventeen years in Russia, arrived in Riga today, having obtained permission to leave Moscow after many months of effort. Another daughter, Miss Annie Hopwood, has been detained temporarily on the Russian border because the name on her papers was incorrect, having been confused with the name of her mother, who died recently.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson has requested Governor Allen of Kansas to forward to the general trade commission any information he has tending to indicate that the recent decline in wheat prices was due to unfair practices or competition or to other artificial causes.

KEEP UP SUPPORT OF ACADEMY FOR INDEFINITE TIME

Congregationalists at Madison Vote to Continue Endeavor Academy Support

After two hours of debate the Congregational conference at Madison adopted a resolution supporting Endeavor academy. Rev. C. C. Rowland, La Crosse; Rev. Theodore Paville, Oshkosh; Rev. C. H. Beale, Milwaukee, led opposition to continued support of the school and Dr. H. W. Wilson, Ripon; Rev. N. J. Breed, Grand Rapids; Rev. G. L. Bennett, Elgin, and Rev. O. L. Robinson spoke in favor of continuing school support.

"An undemocratic effort to adjust an important issue was squarely taken in hand by the Sons of Pilgrims, debated in courtesy and good spirit and carried through happily and effectively," remarked President W. N. Ellis of the academy after the adoption of the resolution. "It was an example of democratic citizenship."

The academy is located at Endeavor, Marquette county, and has a teaching staff of six.

HARDING CARRIES LEAGUE WARFARE TO INDIANA TODAY

ON BOARD SENATOR HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Oct. 15.—In a whirlwind trip through southern Indiana today Senator Harding continued his warfare against the league of nations and asked for "a return to the constitution" through the election of a republican administration and a republican congress.

Leaving Louisville, Ky., this morning.

"Can't Cut Off My Leg" Says Railroad Engineer

"I am a railroad engineer; about 20 years ago my leg was seriously injured in an accident out West. Upon my refusing to allow the doctor to amputate it I was told it would be impossible to heal the wound. I have tried all kinds of salves and had many doctors in the past 20 years, but to no avail. Finally I resolved to use PETERSON'S OINTMENT on my leg. You cannot imagine my astonishment when I found it was doing what over 100 things had failed to do. My leg is now completely cured."

Gus Hault, 799 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"It makes me feel proud to be able to produce an ointment like that," says Peterson of Buffalo. "Not only do I guarantee Peterson's ointment for old sores and wounds, but for eczema, salt rheum, ulcers, chafing, itching skin and blind, bleeding, or itching piles, and I put up a big box for 25 cents of all drugs at a price all can afford to pay and money back if not satisfied."

Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co. Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

ing he was to reach Indianapolis this morning after short stops for rear platform speeches. Tonight he will speak in the Indiana capital and tomorrow night will wind up his trip with a speech in St. Louis.

CALIFORNIA FARMER CONFESSES HE KILLED DAUGHTER'S CHILDREN

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Oct. 15.—W. B. Willbanks, a farmer taken into custody following an alleged attempt on the life of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Midkiff, confessed yesterday, according to a statement by District Attorney J. R. Dorsey, that he had killed his daughter's two young children. The district attorney said Willbanks confessed he was the father of the dead children.

HARDING'S SISTER QUILTS WASHINGTON POLICE FORCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Caroline Votaw, sister of Senator

Harding, republican presidential nominee, today announced her resignation as probation officer of the woman's bureau of the Washington Metropolitan police. Mrs. Votaw gave no reason for leaving the service, but reports have been current of friction between members of the women's bureau.

HOLD-UP MAN HANGED

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Frank Zagar, convicted of killing two men in a hold-up, was executed in the county jail at 8:17 o'clock this morning. He died on the same gallows on which two other men were hanged yesterday. Ten others who were to have paid the death penalty yesterday and today have been saved, at least temporarily, by reprieves and stays of execution.

IGNORE SUGAR ORDER. HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 15.—Half-fax members of the Wholesale Grocers' guild of Nova Scotia, meeting here today decided to refuse to obey the order issued in Ottawa last night by the board of commerce of Canada fixing the price of sugar in the dominion at not higher than 21 cents a pound.

First to eliminate metal work from the slab of the lavatory

The elimination of metal from the fittings on the lavatory slab was a matter of gradual progress which had its beginning in 1904, when Thomas Maddock's Sons Company made the first integral supply nozzle lavatory. This feature

Let us show you the convenience of the self-cleansing overflow lavatory

We reproduce above a portion of a page advertisement which appears this week in the Literary Digest.

The overflow cleansing feature, which is built within the lavatory itself, makes it possible to thoroughly clean the overflow by simply holding one finger over the supply nozzle while the water is turned on. This directs the supply stream down through the overflow channel and cleans it in an instant.

The fixtures equipped with this patented feature are made of glistening, pure white, almost unbreakable vitreous china which is non-absorbent and will not chip, crack or craze.

By combining all the advantages of vitreous china with the conveniences of the overflow cleansing device, the makers of this fixture have produced the premier achievement of three generations of experience in the manufacture of sanitary equipment.

We now have several styles of this fixture on display in our showrooms. Come in and let us show you how much this one feature will save in housework and how much it will add to the convenience of your bathroom.

"NOW FOR DEMPSEY" PARIS COMMENT ON GEORGES VICTORY

PARIS, Oct. 15.—"Now for Dempsey," was the comment of the Paris boulevard today on the victory of Georges Carpentier, the French boxing idol, over Battling Levinsky in Jersey City, N. J.

No boasting expressions were heard, but "may the best man win and we think Carpentier the better man" all were saying. The fight created less interest than the bout between Carpentier and Joe Beckett, the English heavyweight, but many Parisians sat up all night to await news of the result.

Mme. Carpentier, when informed of her husband's victory, displayed no surprise.

"I knew all the time Georges would win," she said, "but I don't like boxing. I hope the next fight, with Mr. Dempsey, will be his last, win or lose, so that he may come back to me."

Francis Reichel, best known of the French referees, said:

"It is to be regretted, for the sake of Carpentier and France, that the fight was not conducted under an agreement with the International Boxing union, as that deprives France of one international boxing championship which still must be considered vacant. As for the result, we all expected it. The only thing that surprises me is the fight lasted so long."

There was little betting in Paris on the event owing to the scarcity of Levinsky money.

HUNTERS REUNION TO BE HELD OCTOBER 15 TO 20 AT GALESVILLE

GALESVILLE, Wis., Oct. 15.—The thirteenth annual Hunters' Reunion will be held at Galesville October 15 to 20. The big sport will open today with headquarters at Reception park. More than a hundred hunters and as many or more hounds will be on the grounds.

Galesville has been the scene of this reunion many years. In former days the grounds at Arctic Springs were used for this purpose. Reception park affords better accommodations for camping.

This will be a general round-up and fox chase. All lovers of fox and con dogs are invited. There will be fox chasing all day and con hunts at night. Meals will be served on the grounds, and ladies as well as gentlemen are invited.

The officers of the association are: Gust Chapiwsky, of Sparta, president; Charles Sturdevant, Melina, secretary; Clarence Augustine, Whitehall, treasurer; Committee—Ole Lund, Emory Terpening, Clarence Noe, Galesville; Will Dickau, Wilton; Eagle Fox, Leona.

TOMAH TIES ONE AND WINS OTHER, 72 TO 0

Tomah High school's football squad has two games to their credit this season. The first game of the season was with Baraboo and was a scoreless tie. The other game was with Horicon and resulted in a score of 72 to 0 in Tomah's favor. The season's schedule includes games with Reedsburg, Sparta, Winona and New Lisbon.

Manager Solved It

"Brown," said the manager of the bank, "there'll be a vacancy in the head office shortly and I'm thinking of nominating your twin brother for the position."

"My twin brother?" exclaimed "Brown. "But—"

"I mean the one I saw at the baseball game yesterday while you were at your aunt's funeral."

"Oh—yes," said Brown. "I—"

"I remember. I'll go and fetch him."

"Good," said the manager, "and don't come back till you've found him."—Daily Northwestern.

LA CROSSE HIGH ELEVEN PREPARES FOR INVASION OF TOMAH GRID SECTOR

The La Crosse High school football eleven will face a tough proposition Saturday when they journey to Tomah for an invasion of that sector in quest of football honors. History has revealed the Tomah aggression to be one of the hardest teams to defeat on the circuit, and in view of the fact that the Tomahs retain a long list of men from last year, the game is expected to be doubly interesting.

The work of the line during the past week deserves considerable mention and the stellar playing of the backfield in the practice games with the seconds is also worthy of note. Captain "Jack" Sullivan will undoubtedly fill the pivot position as he did last Saturday. For guards there are Kevin, C. Stokke and Ed Miller; tackles, Dunham and "Dutch" Engelke, and for ends the choice is between Glen Murray, "Bill" Turek and Art Frey.

"Mooney" Vondrasick, who started in last week's mix, is out of the game this week and his place is being filled for by "Joe" Abraham. "Hans" Zoehf will undoubtedly be his running mate. Leo Mueller will play fullback. La Crosse beat the Tomah outfit last year and the school is anxious to have them repeat the performance.

The game will start promptly at 1 o'clock in order that the team can make train connections, and many fans are planning to make the trip.

FORMER HIGH SCHOOL GRIDER IS FULLBACK WITH WYOMING SQUAD

"Bob" Fitzke Features in Two Plays that Win for Wyoming in Denver Clash

"Bob" Fitzke, last year's star right half on the La Crosse high school football eleven, is going good again this season, holding down the fullback position regularly with the University of Wyoming machine.

In a recent clash with the University of Denver, "Bobbie" pulled off several sensational plays, scoring a drop kick from the thirty-five yard line, tying the score, and later in the game was responsible for a successful pass which the end took twenty-five yards for the winning touchdown.

ELKS' BOWLING LEAGUE

The Red Makers took the second and third after losing the first to the Trailers at the Lotus alley last night. Berling, for the Red Makers, turned in a high score, 190, while Leissing, pulled 187 for the Trailers.

The Vampires "vamped" but one out of three from the Pioneer outfit, winning the second game when Keeler rolled 210. Warninger topped the Pioneers with a score of 198.

EBBETS READY TO TALK TRADE FOR RUBE MARQUARD

Brooklyn Owner Willing to Arrange Deal for Veteran Dodger Pitcher

NEW YORK—Within a few hours after their return to Flatbush to dump their battle stained uniforms into the lockers for the winter, the defeated Robins had dispersed for the season without any formal adieu. They left it up to Squire Ebbets to slice the loser's portion of the world's series melon and send them their shares.

Rube Marquard remained on Ebbets' "in bad" list, the squire reiterating his decision to kick the rube off the club, but there was a hint that Ebbets' determination had relaxed just a little bit.

"I am not trying to drive Marquard out of organized baseball or even out of the league," Ebbets said. "I only said he couldn't remain with my club, but if someone else wants him I would be glad to arrange a deal for him. I think that's punishment enough for him."

Marquard came back with the rest of the players, but he took no part in the skydiving that went on among the defeated athletes, none of whom seemed to have lost any sleep over the losing they got in Cleveland. The Rube lamented that it was pretty tough to get the air from organized ball in the thirteenth year of his career.

BADGERS WILL NOT PROTEST PLAYING OF PURPLE STAR

Will Leave Matter to Northwestern; Coach Richards Orders Secret Practice

BY BILL WALKER

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 15.—Two important developments in Wisconsin football circles took place within the last 24 hours. One was the announcement by Coach Tom F. Jones that the Wisconsin athletic department had decided not to protest the eligibility of Harry Grausnick, Northwestern player. The other was the clamping tight of the lid on varsity workouts by Coach Richards, who declared rigid secret practices started last night.

The athletic department, it was announced by officials at the field as they drove hundreds of enthusiastic fans out of sight of the practice, had requested the Daily Cardinal, university morning publication, to print the notice of the secret practices but the request of the department had been denied.

As in the past, readers of this column can rely on the fact that football news appearing here is based on personal observation only, although the time has been reached in intercollegiate athletics, according to the coaches, when it is necessary to keep the team behind a high barbed wire fence for all but one hour each week.

For the first time this season the coach last night allowed his team to use a bunch of new plays which, judging from the way the varsity walked over the freshmen, should mean victory for Wisconsin against Northwestern.

DEMPSEY FORCES EAGER FOR CARPENTIER SCRAP

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Fight fans here on Thursday began the expected clamor for a fight between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier. Added to the desire to see the champion matched against the best available man was the hankering to determine whether Carpentier really is the "chameleon" of the ring.

Carpentier earned the title of "chameleon" when his manager claimed the fighter changes his style, according to conditions as the chameleon changes his color.

Carpentier will remain here until the end of the year at least, it was said on Thursday. The Dempsey forces were said to be eager for the meeting.

KONEY AND DODGER PLAYERS TO ARRIVE HERE END OF WEEK

According to information received by Carl Bond, former third sacker on the La Crosse club of the old W-I league, Eddie Konechky, in company with a number of the Brooklyn Dodgers, will arrive in the city within the next few days. Koney, with the other members of the National league championship team, will take his annual hunting trip through this section of the country during his stay here.

When word reached the city that the world's series contenders would soon be enroute for La Crosse, local fans and players immediately began preparations for the formation of a team to meet the famous Genoa aggregation, but in face of the fact that members of a pennant winning team are not permitted to "barnstorm" in accordance with a new ruling of the commission, the idea has been dropped.

Konechky is expected to arrive in the city on Sunday or Monday.

BIBLE ONE OF THE BEST SELLERS SAYS METHODIST BISHOP

Seven-tenths of People in World Have Bibles in Their Own Languages

TOKYO.—The bible is not only the "best seller" in the United States and England but has now become the "best seller" in Japan, according to Rev. Dr. Charles E. Locke, Methodist Episcopal bishop of Manila, P. I., who, in an address here before the World's Sunday School congress, declared that seven-tenths of the people of the world now have bibles in their own language. A century ago, he said, only one-fifth of the people were so provided and now each year nearly 20,000,000 bibles are published in 500 or more languages and dialects.

Bishop Locke declared "The bible is the greatest civilizing force in the world's history. It contains a perfect standard of faith, morals and character and presents the only correct solution of the mystery of life. From Cardmon to Kipling," he said, "English literature is permeated by bible thought and bible diction." Among the famous men and women who grew faith in the bible and admired its worth and beauty, he mentioned Shakespeare, Bacon, Milton, Carlyle, Macaulay, Coleridge, Tennyson, Byron, Sir Walter Scott, Ruskin, Napoleon, Andrew Jackson, Grant, Lee, General Grant, De Toqueville, Goethe, Wilberforce, Hugo, Sir Isaac Newton, John Adams, Helme and Queen Victoria.

The enemies of the bible, the bishop said, had "done their worst to destroy it and when they imagined they had overturned it they found the bible was a cube and is always right side up." He told of the case of a Japanese scholar of great mental vigor who had been reared as a Confucianist and who commented thus upon a translation of the bible which had been given him by an American missionary:

"I read page after page until I came to the 13th chapter of St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, beginning: 'If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels but have not love I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.' I read the whole chapter. I was fascinated. I had never seen or heard or dreamed of a morality like that. I felt that it was above the reach of the human race, that it must have come from heaven, that the man who wrote the chapter must have received light from God—from God, about whose existence I had been speculating. And then I read the Gospel of St. John and the words of Christ filled me with wonder. They were not to be resisted. I could not refuse Him my faith."

Scene from "Civilian Clothes," starring William Courtney at the La Crosse Theater this evening.

In Terms of Horse and Candle

We just happened to be reading an article concerning a 200-horsepower airplane motor, and the pages of said article were illuminated by a 16-candle power electric lamp which hung above the desk.

The motor is all right, and so is the lamp—but we are interested in the power.

While the faithful old horse is rapidly going into the discard as a hauler of heavy loads, his successor, the motor truck, is measured by his pulling capacity—and probably will continue to be measured by that scale for centuries.

And the electric lamp, be it a tiny "night light" or a tremendous glaring affair for street illumination, is measured by what the antedated tall-candle used to be able to do. Very few citizens use candles nowadays—and yet this flickering wick is the standard for great electric institutions all over the world.

A horse or a candle should feel justly proud that such wonderful advancement in the art of power is yet measured by them.

Sale of Sleep-Producing Drugs Investigated by New York Health Officer

NEW YORK.—Increase of deaths here from sleep-producing drugs, use of which, it is said, has been acquired by many persons since the advent of prohibition, has led Health Commissioner Copeland to order an investigation of sales of such drugs. Additional restrictions may be placed on their sale, he said.

The investigation was ordered because of a statement by Chief Medical Examiner Morris regarding the increase in deaths attributed to this cause. He said that alcoholic addicts, finding themselves nervous and sleepless in many instances where they have been unable to purchase liquor for their customary "nightcap" before retiring and the "eye opener" on arising had resorted to other artificial and dangerous ways of "wooing sleep." The desired relief, he said, was obtained through the use of the nerve-quieting effects of certain drugs.

Dr. Copeland, in instructions to the bureau of foods and drugs to begin an investigation immediately, referred to most of the drugs about which complaint has been made officially, as "treacherous, soul-killers." 15 grains of one of which, he said, were sufficient to cause death. He admitted that fatalities from the use of these drugs were "altogether too frequent."

Dr. Morris declared that deaths from sleep-producing drugs occurred in hospitals and in what formerly were sanitariums for treatment of alcoholism. Deaths from such causes also had been recorded as suicides, he said. Sale of such drugs, he added, should be governed by the same strict regulations as those governing the sale of poisons.

Polling 600,000 Voters In Six Pivotal States

In this week's LITERARY DIGEST the first instalment of THE DIGEST'S poll of 600,000 voters in the six big doubtful states of New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and California is published. These votes have been polled from all classes of voters with entire impartiality, and the results of the poll are extremely interesting because the electoral votes of these six states total 140, or more than half of the 266 votes necessary for a choice by the electoral college.

The article accompanying the tabulation brings out many interesting sidelights on the political situation this year. This week's number of THE DIGEST will be read and studied with unusual interest by men and women of all political faiths.

Two Slices for One

How much bread do you eat?

One slice with every meal? Two with every meal?

The bread-consumption of La Crosse is only half what it should be for the best health and vigor of La Crosse people.

Eating twice the amount of bread means twice the strength and vitality—and saving money while you win it.

Maybe you've never sat down and figured on paper the money saving of bread compared with other foods.

A pound-and-a-half loaf of bread is the equivalent of 6 pounds of sirloin steak or 8 eggs.

It is not "heavy" food, but the simple, nourishing food that creates strength and energy.

Eat more bread—and see that your children eat more. Some day they will thank you.

La Crosse Bread is Bread at its Best—always pure, tempting and nutritious.

COLONEL CONGER TO TALK AT MEETING OF HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"The Education of Grant" Subject of Officer Who Served in France

FOURTEEN CURATORS TO BE ELECTED BY THE SOCIETY

Thirty-three New Members Added During the Year

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 15.—Col. A. L. Conger, Washington, D. C., who served during the war at the American Headquarters in France, will talk on "The Education of Grant the General" and discuss comparisons taken from the World War before the State Historical Society at their annual meeting here October 22.

The program which the society has arranged includes also a business meeting at 2 o'clock and a 6 o'clock dinner at the University club in honor of the curator who shall have secured the greatest number of new members this year.

Col. Conger's experience in the European war where he knew intimately most of the United States generals now came into contact with French, Belgian, Dutch, and other German generals, will render what he has to say both directly and indirectly about the generals of the present war of unusual interest. His address will be given at the University museum at 8:15 in the evening.

In the afternoon business meeting at which the president of the society, Judge E. R. Stevens, will preside, fourteen curators will be elected. Besides the twelve curators usually elected at the annual meeting of the society, two will be elected this year to fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of W. A. P. Morris and Judge John J. Winslow.

Thirty-three members have been added to the society in the three months ending Oct. 10. Eleven of these were life memberships. The life members are:

W. J. Hargre, Chicago; T. C. McHale, Waukegan; W. D. Holtzman, Portland, Ore.; E. H. Hutz, Chicago; E. P. Hunter, Madison; E. A. Jewett, Marshall; E. H. Johnson, Fredrick; C. A. Leitch, New Lisbon; E. J. Lindsay, Milwaukee; and W. S. Porro, Beloit.

WETS AND DRYS BOTH FAVOR THE MULBERGER ACT

One of the strange things of this campaign is that the wets and the drys have amalgamated on at least one proposition.

Both the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league and the wet organizations of the state are urging the voters to vote for the Mulberger bill in the referendum at the coming election.

Because of the fact that they contend that the federal law will supercede the Mulberger law, the Anti-Saloon league believes that the passage of the Mulberger law will be of advantage to them. The wets seem to think otherwise.

"Both sides seem to be in favor of the endorsement of the Mulberger law by the people and it should be endorsed on election day," said Frank Metcalfe, Milwaukee secretary of the Trade Union Personal Liberty league. "If the measure is not given an O. K. by the legislature we will again have the wet and dry question thrown into legislature and the people subjected to much expense."

New Way to Remove Hairs Creates Sensation

(Actually Takes Out the Roots)

What beauty specialists regard as one of the most important discoveries in recent years is the phenolac method of removing superfluous hair. Its great advantage, of course, lies in the fact that it actually removes the hair roots. It does this easily, instantly, harmlessly. Sufferers from the affliction named need no longer despair. The actual hair-roots come out before your very eyes, leaving the skin as smooth and hairless as a babe's.

Because it offers such complete relief, a stick of phenolac is the most inexpensive thing a woman can buy for the removal of hairy growths. For the same reason druggists are having an enormous demand for it. You can use it with entire safety; it is so harmless one could even eat it without any ill effect.

RIVOLI
From his initial motion picture production in the pioneer days of the screen drama down to the present, Cecil B. DeMille has set a record for consistent quality which has never been surpassed. Each of his photodramas in turn have been regarded as the ultimate degree of screen perfection and they have been exceeded in quality only by succeeding DeMille productions.

In his new production "Something to Think About," now playing at the Rivoli, Mr. DeMille has not only passed his own records but has given to the screen a drama that is likely to be the biggest single screen success, and one that will live in the minds of the people for some time to come. Jennie Macpherson wrote the story, and into it she has woven all the elements which contributed to the success of her earlier stories "Joan the Woman," "Old Wives for New" and "Male and Female" are notable examples. It is full of the human truth-to-life humor and pathos that have made the DeMille pictures stand out like a lighthouse on a sea of mediocre pictures.

The cast is excellent and can be considered as all star, including Elliott Dexter, Gloria Swanson, Monte Blue, Theodore Roberts and Little Mickey Moore.

MAJESTIC
John Lynch's story, "The Figurehead," starring Eugene O'Brien is the feature attraction at the Majestic for the balance of the week.

O'Brien the popular hero of many romances, portrays the role of a young society man who is offered the candidacy in his home town and accepts for a lark. Through the influence of love, however, he determines to make a real fight, which is not to the liking of his backers, who have nominated him as a "figurehead" through a secret deal to throw the election to the opposing candidate.

Failing to influence him to withdraw, they play a "frame-up" which will involve in a scandal the names of his sweetheart and himself. It is then, the fight commences, a fight that has the faded battle of the Kilkeny rats looking like a meeting of the Browning reading circle.

There is romance a plenty mixed with it, and battles royal fit to warm the hearts of those who like to see a good frolic. There are many elaborate settings, mob scenes, and a splendid supporting cast including Anna Q. Nilsson, Edwin Stevens, Ora Carewe and Joseph Gerard.

PRENUPTIAL SHOWER IS GIVEN IN HONOR OF MISS CLARA MUNZ

COMPLIMENTARY to Miss Clara Munz, a bride of the coming week, Mrs. W. A. Henke, Mrs. J. W. Henke, Mrs. W. J. Grupp and Mrs. Nellie Henke were charming hostesses yesterday at a pre-nuptial shower given at the home of Mrs. Henke, 1211 S. 10th St. Luncheon on South 10th St. was served from a handsomely appointed table, which was centered by a basket of cream and white berries. Brilliant hued autumn leaves, scattered on the cloth and the place of the bride-elect was decorated with a colonial corsage bouquet of pink and white flowers. The bride-elect was seated with a pair of beautiful pink and white wool blouses, daintily wrapped in white tissue paper and tied with pink satin ribbon.

MR. AND MRS. F. A. Pruess and the employees of the Mutchow Bros. & Co. were present at the shower. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers. Toasts and speeches were given, and following dinner the party attended a movie at one of the theaters. The remainder of the evening was spent in auto-riding.

MRS. HERBERT E. Wheaton leaves today for Madison for a week-end visit. She will visit her son, who is a student at the University, and her daughter, Miss Gladys Wheaton, who is teaching at Watertown.

MR. AND MRS. John P. Smith entertained at an enjoyable post-nuptial dinner at their home near Sparta in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Krueger and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Meyers, who were married September 29. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and places were laid for twenty, only immediate relatives being in attendance. Many useful gifts were presented. The couple left for Minneapolis for a short honeymoon trip.

THE FAOWA Campfire Girls will give a coffee on Saturday afternoon from two to five in the balcony of the William Doerflinger store.

THE LADIES' auxiliary of the B. F. of A. will hold a bazaar Friday, October 22, at Union hall, Rose street. Everyone invited.

THE WILSON-POLWELL Relief corps will hold a meeting tonight at the corps rooms to make preparations for inspection. Every member is asked to be present.

MR. ALBERT L. HEMLEBEN, 1808 Market street, announces the marriage of his daughter, Alberta Elizabeth, to Mr. Joseph Paul Kretz, the ceremony taking place Thursday morning at six o'clock at the Holy Trinity church. Rev. Father Joseph Reisterer officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Hemleben, sister of the bride, and Mr. Angus Gutens was the best man.

A three-course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father. The repast was featured by a handsomely decorated wedding cake, a gift of the sisters of St. Francis hospital, of which institution the bridegroom is the male nurse. Other beautiful gifts were received.

The bride wore a suit of brown velvet, embroidered in gold and trimmed with silver fox fur, with a feathered hat to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and orchids. The bridesmaid wore a blue tulle suit with a feather hat. Her corsage bouquet was of Russell roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Kretz left in their car for a motor trip to the Twin Cities. They will reside at La Crosse.

Among the delightful affairs given in compliment to the bride was a pre-nuptial shower Thursday evening by Mrs. Bert Hemleben and the Misses Jeanette and Dorothy Hemleben, sisters of the bride. The bride-elect was presented with many handsome gifts.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the marriage of Mr. Eastman Edward Irvine, son of Mrs. Addie R. Irvine, 1614 Main street, to Miss Margaret Purcell of Newport, Staten Island, N. Y., which took place Saturday, October 9, at a church of that city. The ceremony was very quiet.

MR. AND MRS. James R. Kinsloe of Allentown, Pa., arrived in La Crosse last night for a ten days' visit with friends here. Mr. Kinsloe was formerly executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Several informal functions have been planned for Mr. and Mrs. Kinsloe during their visit here.

THE BROTHERHOOD of American Yeomen will take in a large class of candidates on the 25th of October. Arrangements were under way for this class on the 14th, but as it was impossible for the chief respondent, W. E. Davy of Des Moines, and Elmer E. Smith, state manager of Wisconsin, to be present, the date has been changed. Arrangements are being made to have open installation, class adoption and program, and the meeting will be open and free to members and friends.

FEELING HIGH IN HURLEY OVER DEATH OF SALOON KEEPER

Friends Vow Vengeance Against Dry Agents for Shooting of Chapusio

HURLEY, Wis.—Somebody is going to pay dearly for the life of John Mitchell Chapusio, who died from gunshot wounds received in a running fight with federal agents late on Saturday. If threats in the air in Little Italy are carried out.

Everywhere there seems to be intense hatred toward federal officers. As the body of the dead saloonkeeper was carried to the little cemetery on the edge of the town, the feeling seemed to grow.

Evidently bent on clearing up any "double crossing" that is attributed to have been the work of federal agents, persons connected with the booze running are frank in admissions to District Attorney Marion F. Reid in an effort to aid the prosecution of federal men if the shooting was not justified.

Deny Booze Runners Shot

Booze runners here deny that they fired shots at the federal agent. One of the men, Tony Varda, who accompanied Chapusio when he was shot and who himself was shot through the head, denies that any shots were fired by the booze runners. Every shot that rang out, he asserts, came from the rifles and pistols of the federal men.

The report that a man named Mc-Hall was killed near Mercer, Wis., Monday night is another mystery that permeates the air. In Mercer they know nothing of the shooting and neither do authorities of Hurley know anything of the affair.

No Rescue Party

That a rescue party went out in sympathy with booze runners and searched for the federal men is still another "cock and bull" story, according to all information that can be gained here. Not more than a half dozen automobiles left Hurley after the shooting and those that went to the scene contained curious persons, none of them connected in any way with the booze runners.

POSED AS A MAN; "MARRIED" GIRL!

JACQUELINE GAY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Jacqueline Gay, 24 years old, wore men's clothes for a number of years and then met and "married" Winifred McVaugh, 20, and they kept house together as "man and wife" for four years, according to Jacqueline's story to the police. She claims to be an Oklahoma Indian girl and says she took to masculine attire to avoid the perils of the temptress where she worked at a mission. She became a drug user and the police arrested her as a moon when they saw her receive a package of drugs. Her story is said to implicate a wealthy leader of the Italian colony who is said to have forfeited bail when she charged him with selling her drugs.

GOVERNMENT OPENS NEW HOSPITAL FOR THE SHELL-SHOCKED

Hundred Patients Transferred to Perryville, Missouri, from Temporary Hospital

PERRYVILLE, Mo.—A new government hospital for the treatment of former soldiers suffering from shell shock has been opened here by the United States public health service with the transfer of 100 patients from the temporary hospital at Cape May, N. J.

Special care and treatment of the mild types of mental disorders embraced in the term "shell shock" is offered. In addition to the main building, home-like surroundings are available in numerous individual cottages.

There are over 12,000 discharged soldiers, victims of shell shock and kindred disorders, under treatment at the present time, 5,578 of whom are in hospitals operated by the public health service and the remainder in other hospitals where contracts provide proper care and treatment.

HE KNEW

Harold Bell Wright, the novelist, said in an after-dinner speech in San Francisco:

"After all, success—financial success—is the best proof of a book's merit. All good books, from 'Robinson Crusoe' down, have had a phenomenal success—made hundreds of thousands of dollars."

"We all know this is true about the tramp who asked the old gentleman for the price of a glass of beer. 'I have no money,' the old gentleman said, 'but I will give you a little advice, friend.'"

"The tramp lit a cigaret butt and blew a contemptuous puff of smoke into the old gentleman's face. 'Well, if ye ain't got no money,' he said, 'yer advice can't be very valuable.'"

Phoenix Fable Readjusted
While instructing a class of youngsters in mythology one afternoon, the teacher of a public school told the class the story of the phoenix. Among the pupils was a small boy named Reginald. "Reginald," said the teacher on the following morning, "do you remember what I was speaking about yesterday afternoon?" "Yes, ma'am," promptly responded Reginald. "I remember all right." "I am very glad that you do," returned the teacher. "Tell me something about it." "It was about Phoenixville, Miss Martha," answered the youngster. "Phoenixville rising up and carrying out their ashes."

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPENS WAR ON COAL MEN OF THE STATE

Starts Action in Courts to Stop
"Gouging of the People"

COAL SHORTAGE IN STATE IS ACUTE DECLARES BLAINE

Charges Profiteering on Part of the Coal Barons

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 15.—Aroused by a coal shortage which threatens the health and lives of citizenship, Attorney General John J. Blaine today instituted proceedings in the Dane county courts to put an end to what he terms "the heartless gouging of our people by the coal barons."

The action of Blaine was determined upon after a series of conferences yesterday during which Director of Markets Edward Nordman placed before Governor Philipp and the attorney general complaints that have poured into his office petitioning for relief. It was but recently that Governor Philipp petitioned President Wilson to appoint a fuel administrator for the state.

So acute has become the situation in Wisconsin and so alarmingly high the prices that Attorney General Blaine has found it necessary to pursue in his campaign for governor to handle a situation which is looked upon as one of the most serious Wisconsin has had to face in many years.

Official information is to the effect that there are thousands of homes in the state that are without a pound of coal of any form or description in their bins and the first cold snap threatens to bring actual suffering in many places.

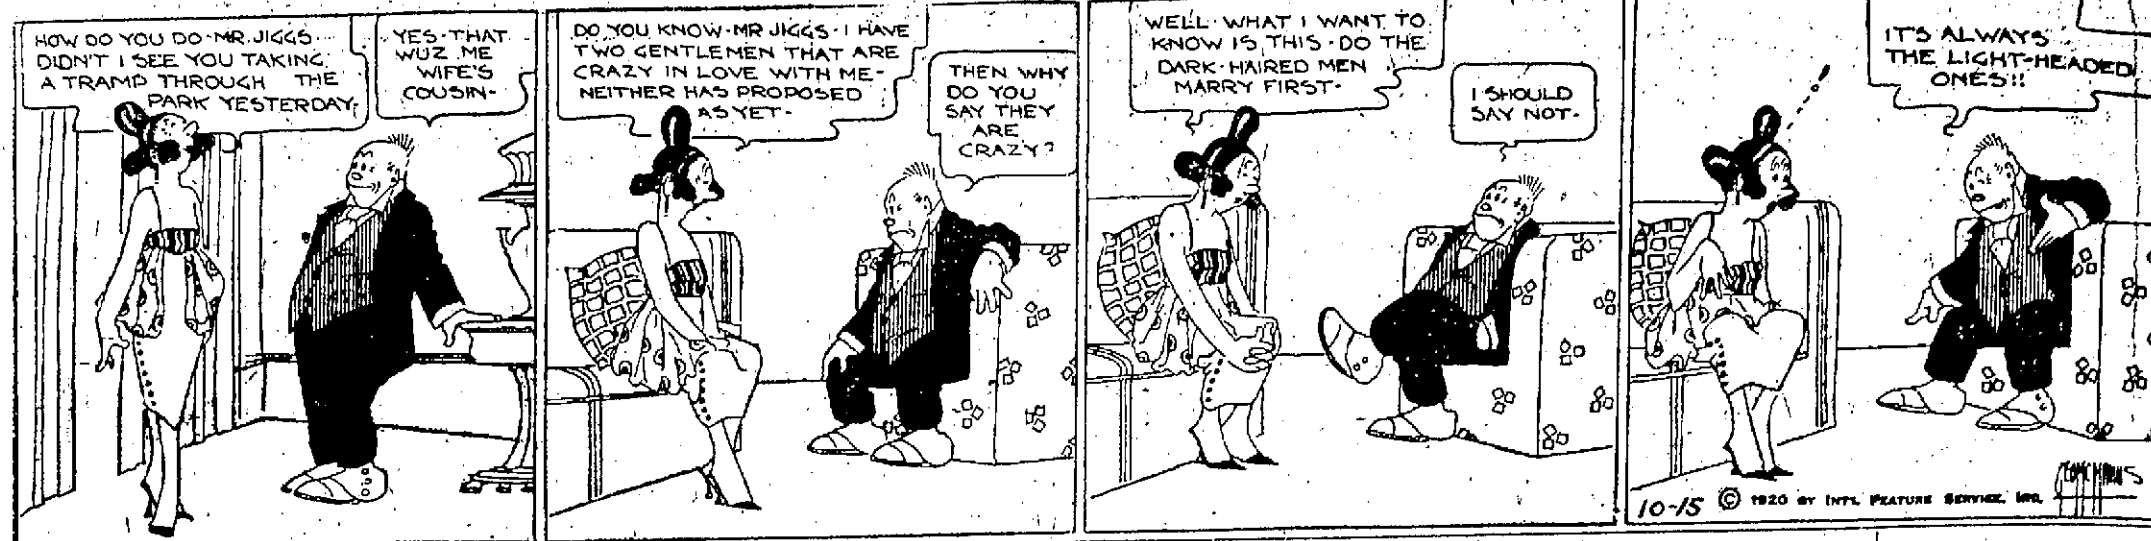

The shortage and soaring prices are not confined to any particular section but the complaints are from all parts of the state.

The city of Madison is as badly hit as any place in Wisconsin and here there are many who have failed to get either the product or a promise for the future.

Attorney General Blaine this morning filed with a Dane county circuit court commissioner a complaint with a view of investigating the alleged coal shortage and particularly the exorbitant prices charged. The purpose of the initial proceedings is to establish grounds for such action as is possible under the state laws. The attorney general is acting under authority conferred upon by the statute governing monopolies.

Before taking official action the attorney general received assurance of the closest co-operation and every

BRINGING UP FATHER

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The girls' debating society, which met last Friday for the first time, is progressing splendidly owing to the coaching of Miss Esch and Miss Jamieson and the enthusiastic spirit displayed by the girls. They have chosen as the name for their society, "Gambetta," the name of the great French orator who was prominent in the Franco-Prussian war. Their first debate was held on the subject of the school colors which were decided on as blue and gold.

At a meeting of the common council held Friday night, a resolution introduced by Alderman Strauss provided that the High school physics teacher should test the city gas supply. This resolution was adopted and Mr. Prottsman states that he is ready to begin the work as soon as he receives official notification from the council. All the necessary apparatus is in the physics laboratory.

Coyotes never attack human beings.

HE SAT DOWN QUICKLY

No finer dressed party of men and women ever assembled together in this city than those who took part in the ball given by the bachelors of Sheridan to their married friends. Many of the costumes deserve mention, but the Postman is not capable of describing them properly.

The supper and refreshments were of the kind that all appreciated, and were served at just the right time by obliging waiters, who seemed to enter into the spirit of the times and make everyone feel satisfied. Only one deplorable thing transpired at the dance, and it was nobody's fault.

Dr. Newell had the misfortune to lean too far forward when bowing to a lady and tear his pants across the seams. He had filled his program and had a beautiful partner to each number, but he had to back off and sit down.—Sheridan (Wyo.) Post.

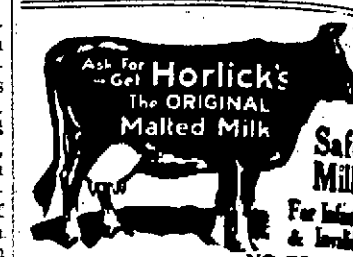

Faint When Help Is at Hand

In discussing sudden fainting fits in children, Dr. E. Stier writes in the Deutsche Medizinische Wochenschrift (Berlin) that such attacks seldom, if ever, occur in children when at play, on the street in swimming, or the like, but always at home or in school, where help is close at hand. From this he argues the psychic factor of a weakening of the will power when the child knows it is safe to yield to the strain.

WINDMILL GENERATES ELECTRICITY

The windmill has not been generally found available for the generation of electricity because of the irregularity of the air currents, but this has been overcome by a Swedish inventor. Instead of being directly connected to the dynamo in the usual manner, the mill-wheel shaft is geared to a hoisting device, which serves to elevate a two-ton weight to the top of a 53-foot steel and wood tower. When the weight reaches the maximum height, it is released, and as it falls actuates the dynamo, which is mounted on a bracket at the apex of the tower with the mill wheel. A storage battery and switchboard are housed in the lower portion of the tower.

A Message to Mothers

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you; the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. H. H. Fletcher

CALUMET
"BEST BY TEST"

That's a big saving—but that isn't all. You save when you buy Calumet and you save when you use it. It is reasonable in cost and possesses more than the ordinary leavening strength. You pay less and use less. You get the most in purity, dependability and wholesomeness.

In every way—it is the best way to keep down baking costs. That's what has made it the world's biggest selling baking powder—has kept it the favorite of millions of housewives for more than thirty years.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Sunshine Cake Recipe

LA CROSSE THEATRES COMPANY
8% Cumulative First Preferred Stock

Par Value $100 Per Share.

Dividends payable semi-annually on the 15th days of February and August.

Dividends exempt from Federal Normal Income Tax and almost wholly free from Wisconsin Income Tax.

Callable prior to Jan. 1, 1926 at 105; prior to Jan. 1, 1927 at 104; prior to Jan. 1, 1928 at 103 and at 102 thereafter.

The La Crosse Theatres Company owns the ground and buildings occupied by the La Crosse Theatre on South 5th St., the Bijou Theatre on South 3rd St., the Rivoli Theatre on North 4th St., and leases the Majestic Theatre on Main St. It owns the equipment, organs and furnishings of all these theatres. The Company also owns one-half of the Common Stock of the Cooper Amusement Co., which owns the new theatre being constructed on the North Side and which leases and operates the Casino, Strand and Rialto Theatres.

ASSETS

After applying the proceeds of the sale of this Preferred Stock the net tangible assets are estimated to be well in excess of three times the amount of this stock to be presently offered.

RESTRICTIONS

Rigid restrictions govern the issuance of additional amounts of this Preferred Stock. The Company agrees that no dividends in excess of 8% will be paid on the Common Stock unless the Company's surplus fund after payment of such dividend shall be equal to at least two years' dividends on this Preferred Stock. The Company will not create any new mortgage except purchase money mortgages, nor create any new Preferred Stock having priority over the authorized Preferred Stock, nor create or guarantee any evidences of indebtedness maturing later than one year from date of issue.

SINKING FUND

Beginning January 1, 1925, the Company agrees to set aside a fund each year equal to 3% of the greatest amount of Preferred Stock outstanding at any time and this fund is to be applied to the purchase or redemption of Preferred Stock at a price up to the redemption price for that year.

GENERAL FACTS

The La Crosse Theatres Co. owns exceedingly valuable and well-known downtown La Crosse real estate and derives substantial income from the rent of offices and stores in addition to the large revenue from the operation of its theatres. Its theatre business has grown and developed until it now ranks as one of the large and successful businesses of La Crosse. The management is in the hands of successful theatre men all of whom are financially interested in the Company and no change of management is contemplated. The earnings of the Company are now running in excess of four times the dividend on this Preferred Stock, and the operation of the new Rivoli Theatre will materially increase this showing. The Preferred Stock is rigidly restricted and beginning with the year 1925 the Company agrees to retire 3% of this issue each year. In view of these facts we believe Dividends will accrue from the date of payment on the stock. Dividend checks will be promptly mailed to Preferred Stockholders twice a year. This Preferred Stock may be purchased in amounts from $100 up and we particularly welcome subscriptions from small investors who will then be interested in our Company. Subscriptions may be made at our office over Bijou Theatre, 113 South Third St., La Crosse, Wis., or may be sent by mail. Subscription blanks will be provided on request.
